

Hanging of the Greens Is Traditional Affair

Annual Christmas Pageant
Will Be Presented
December 14.

Opening the Christmas season on the campus will be the traditional "Hanging of the Greens" presented in Residence Hall by the girls living there. It is the custom that the ceremony be held the last Sunday before Christmas vacation. This year the date has been set for Sunday afternoon, December 14, at four o'clock.

Since its first presentation in 1933 the program has remained unchanged. Again the central characters will be the Queen of Misrule, representative of the joyful spirit of Christmas; and the Spirit of Christmas, representing the religious spirit. A chorus will sing carols. Candles will form the lighting effects.

An Inspiring Ceremony
Back in 1933 the first program of "Hanging of the Greens" was conceived through the efforts of Miss Margaret Stevenson, then Dean of Women. The first program was well received, and with each following presentation it has become more and more popular. Now it is one of the feature attractions of the year. With the talented girls on the campus this year, the 1947 program promises to be another in the long line of inspiring ceremonies.

Held Once at President's Home
With the exception of one year the girls have had the same setting for their program. In the year 1943, the Navy V-12 Units were occupying the Hall, and President and Mrs. Lamkin opened their home to the girls for the observance of the Christmas season. In 1944, although the Navy still occupied the Hall, they made it available to the girls once again to hang the Greens.

Mrs. Sheetz will sponsor the current "Hanging of the Greens," and the Dance Club, sponsored by Miss Carruth, will present the special dances.

Alpha Chapter Observes
25th Anniversary
December 11.

On December 11, 1947, Alpha chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi will celebrate its 25th anniversary. Each of the alumnae members of the fraternity is being contacted and urged to attend the dinner in observation of Founder's Day. Three national leaders of the fraternity are now connected with Alpha Chapter—Miss Hettie M. Anthony, national founder and president emeritus; Miss Mabel Cook, originator of the idea which resulted in the formation of the fraternity; and Miss June Cozine.

These three leaders and the active members will welcome the return of all former members to the dinner which will be held on the evening of December 13. The exact time and place will be announced later.

First Greek Society
Kappa Omicron Phi was the first Greek letter organization on this campus and as such has been influential in forming policies of all Greek letter organizations now on the campus. In the twenty-five years almost 300 girls who have chosen home economics as a major or minor have been initiated into Alpha chapter. At the present time there are seven active members. Four pledges were initiated October 27. The prospects are bright for a large number of pledges in the near future.

Since the formation of Alpha chapter the fraternity has grown and progressed by adding chapters at the rate of one a year. These chapters extend from the Atlantic to Pacific and south to the Gulf of Mexico. Members of the Alpha chapter have aided in the installation of many of these chapters including: Beta chapter at Warrensburg; Nu chapter at Peru, Nebraska; Omicron chapter at Williamsburg, Virginia; Lambda chapter at Chickasaw, Oklahoma; Xi chapter at Delaware, Ohio; Phi chapter at San Antonio, Texas; and Psi chapter at Springfield.

Attend Conclave
Members from Alpha chapter have attended each of the national convocations. The members attending vary from the official delegate to the entire chapter. In 1940, one of the college buses was used to transport twenty girls to Williamsburg, to attend the conclave. The girls also visited New York City and Washington, D. C., on the way to the conclave. Plans are being made for a large percentage of the present members to attend the tenth conclave to be held during the month of August, 1948, in Indiana, Pennsylvania.

Kappa Omicron Phi now holds its regular meetings in the home management house. Prior to the opening of the home management house the fraternity held its meetings in the cabin located at the south entrance of College Park. At the present time one meeting a month is held jointly with the members of the Home Economics Club. Members of Kappa Omicron Phi sponsored the organization of a Home Economics Club on the campus three years ago. These two organizations work together on professional meetings and money making activities. This year a number of both organizations, Marilyn Partridge, is state president of the College Home Economics Clubs of Missouri.

Awards Ring
For ten years Kappa Omicron Phi has awarded a scholarship ring to the Home Economics girl who has the highest scholastic rating and contributed the most to the fraternity. The award for 1946 went to Miss Eloise Harryman, Weston. To encourage graduate work as well as "undergrad-

Seumas MacManus Tells Stirring Irish Folk Tales

Stirring stories about old Ireland kept the college students as well as the Horace Mann pupils on the edges of their chairs during the November 17 assembly. Original stories and folk tales told only as Seumas MacManus can tell them provided an hour of well-received entertainment.

Seumas MacManus, gray-haired, twinkling-eyed Irish author, put the soul of his race into exquisite language, sometimes tense with passion, sometimes shaken with mirth when he explained his fellow-countrymen's lives. He combined these qualities along with sympathy and understanding to completely captivate his audience.

This lecturer, who was born in County Donegal, Ireland, and who lived the rugged, happy life of an Irish peasant boy, has sufficient background to tell his stories of glory, sorrow, and hope with a true country flavor. As a child, he herded cattle and sheep in the hills and attended school during the winter months at the same place where he later taught. His recreation was confined to visiting from cottage to cottage, listening to his elders repeat folk stories and fairy tales.

He began publishing verses at the age of sixteen. He was attracted to America by Harper's offer to buy his stories for $100 each. To the Irish people he gained a fortune quickly. Besides being famous as a lecturer and story writer, Mr. MacManus is the author of Dark Patrick, The Rocky Road to Dublin, and many other books that are highly recommended by leading critics.

During the winter season, Mr. MacManus lectures and tells stories to students of the universities of America, but when summer comes, he always returns to his homeland.

Clinton County Students Meet at Sponsor's Home

Students from Clinton County met at the home of Miss Alta Carpenter Monday evening, November 3.

The main project of the Clinton County Club for this year will be a visit in the spring to the high schools of the county to give assembly programs.

Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Dora B. Smith, and Miss Carpenter are the sponsors of the club.

See "Playboy of the Western World" as presented by college students on December 11.

Alpha chapter has been able to give financial support to several worthy members through loans.

College Has New Electronic Organ
A Baldwin electronic organ, purchased a month ago for the college auditorium, arrived last week and was used for the first time for the production of "Tartuffe."

Mr. Ralph Hartzell, chairman of the Music Department says of the organ, "It represents a forward step in the development of the Music Department and will be a means of expanding the cultural activities of the College. It fills a need for an instrument in the auditorium to add dignity and austerity to programs presented there."

Classes in organ will be offered next quarter under the direction of Miss Judith Thom. The organ will also be available for practice.

This particular organ was chosen after careful consideration of the needs of the College and the qualities of various organs. It is a true electronic organ in that the tone is both generated and amplified electrically. It operates on a

Sadie Hawkins Week Highly Successful

Dogpatch Style Dance
Ends Turnabout
Affair.

Sadie Hawkins Week at the College was officially closed last Friday night with the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance held in Room 114. Among the celebrities there were president and his wife of P. U. College, Dick Leet and Phyllis Combs. The president wore his Sunday-go-to-meetin' suit of black broadcloth and his top hat. The elderly Scraggs, Earl Shelton and Dorothea Carter, Maryville, looked as if they were in the prime of their youth and were anxious that everyone vote for Hoover even if he wasn't runnin'.

Wins Daisy Mae Contest
Chosen as the most typical L'Al Abner character was Charles Hinchey, a tall, gangly student, who was attired in blue denim overalls, a bright red plaid shirt and a straw hat. He was presented with a gallon of kick-a-poo joy juice. Jeanne Bahl of Mound City won the Daisy Mae contest and received as a gift—a good, hefty-sized rollin' pin. Miss Bahl had on the Daisy Mae style dress of a black, tattered skirt and white peasant blouse.

Judges were the chaperones, the Misses Judith Thom and Janet Dickey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gee.

Musical Program

Picture of Gay 80's Is Given by Miss Clark

Bustles and bangs made their debut on the College stage, November 5. Miss Herma Clark, Chicago Tribune columnist, pictured the gay life of the elegant 80's by explanation and monologue, to the students. To support her praises of that generation, Miss Clark exhibited bustles and bangs as well as several pieces of art work found within homes of the period. Pillow shams once owned by Norman B. Judd and a shelf lambrequin woven by a Quaker were outstanding items of the columnist's collection.

"Mama's Little Helper," her initial monologue attraction, revealed family life, customs, traditions, history, and conditions of the late 19th century. The humorous entertainment characterized a modern mother diligently striving to teach her child to set the table.

The second skit gave the audience a chance to appreciate journalistic standards. It showed a lady reading extracts from a county paper.

The curling of hair was the subject of the final monologue. "The 80's were really the times," laughed Miss Clark. "It was during this time that some of our greatest writers began their careers. Mark Twain, Henry Eggleson, Joel Harris, Bret Hart, and Sarah Jewett were some of the best loved authors. I believe that the 80's was the Golden Age of literature, and Carl Van Doren, historian and critic, has verified my statement."

Miss Clark was awarded the Friends of Literature prize in 1946 for her distinguished service rendered to the Middle West. Besides having written the Marcia Freeman Esmond column for the past eighteen years, Miss Clark has found time to write two books, "Dear Julie" and "The Elegant 80's," and one play, "Port of Chicago."

Seniors Will Have Get-Together

Former Dean of Women Receives High Honor

Miss Dorothy Truex, former Dean of Women at the College, was among a selected group honored at William Jewell College during their annual Achievement Day, Thursday, November 13. Each year a group of alumni that have been successful are invited to attend this special day. This year Miss Truex was the only woman to receive this honor.

During the day Miss Truex was the guest at a tea given by the sororities on the campus. She held conferences with students that were interested in following in her field of work. The day ended with a formal dinner given at the Muhlebach Hotel in Kansas City. Governor Donnelly, who received an honorary degree during the day, was the guest speaker.

Miss Truex came to Maryville in 1939 as head of Residence Hall and was made Dean of Women in 1943. In 1945 she went to Mercer University in Macon, Georgia, where she served in that capacity for two years. She is now Counselor of Women at the University of Oklahoma.

Commerce Department Will Show Many Movies

Mr. Garner, head supervisor of Commerce at Horace Mann, has announced that twenty-one pictures will be shown for various college and high school groups during the year.

The pictures will cover subjects such as bookkeeping, general business, typewriting, secretarial practice, personality development, business law and consumer's problems.

On Thursday, November 13, the first of these series was shown. The subject was teacher training and the importance of education in our economy.

Students See Football Game
Donald Madden and Luther Belcher left Maryville, Friday, November 7, by airplane for South Bend, Indiana, where they attended the Notre Dame-Army football game. The boys had seats on the thirty-yard line for the final encounter between the two famous teams. They returned to Maryville the following Sunday evening.

Registration Day Is December 2

with a research laboratory and purchased the patent of the electronic organ from him. Because of scarcity of materials, no organs were made during the war and the one which arrived here last week is one of the first produced. The organ was installed and tuned by representatives of the Baldwin Piano Company from Kansas City. It is impossible for it to get out of tune once the vibrations are set. Its musical specifications compare favorably with a much larger pipe organ.

The console and two tone cabinets are finished in walnut and are portable. During the week before Christmas, one of the tone cabinets will be placed in the second floor hall in front of the auditorium and Christmas music will be played. The organ will also be used in the Christmas program given by the Tower choir. It is hoped that chimes and an echo organ will be added to the organ facilities in the near future.

"Playboy of Western World" Will Be Presented by Dramatics Club

Attention, Students!

The band needs twenty new recruits for next quarter, and wants you regardless of the instrument you play.

Membership in the band is open to the entire student body regardless of major or minor fields.

The activities of the next two quarters include concerts both at home and away from home, and the playing in rehearsal of a great variety of material. The three weekly rehearsals provide just the "relaxation" you need from your other duties.

You'll have the opportunity next quarter to join the band. Take it! See Mr. Smay (Room 206) if you desire additional information.

Agriculture Club Is Now on Campus

Bill Bowness Is First President of New Organization.

Students of the Agriculture department have organized a new club on the campus, officially called the Ag Club, whose purpose is to enable students of similar background, interests, and training to carry on activities of mutual benefit.

All students majoring or minoring in agriculture will be eligible for membership in the Ag Club. A student not majoring or minoring in agriculture may become a member of the club by receiving a two-thirds majority vote of the club members. Such a membership must be renewed at the beginning of each calendar school year.

All new members accepted in the club must pay $1.00 at the time membership is accepted. This fee includes the first quarter's dues; but there will be a fee of fifty cents for each quarter thereafter. Dues are payable not later than 15 days after the beginning of each quarter, for if they are not paid by this date, they will be doubled. If the dues and the fine are not paid at the end of 30 days after the beginning of the quarter, the member is automatically dropped from the club.

The officers of the club are Bill Bowness, president; Bill Burns, vice president; Paul Clark, secretary; Maurice Merrigan, treasurer; Bill Coons, parliamentarian; and David Arthur, reporter.

All officers are elected for a term of one school year—a term being interpreted as meaning fall, winter, and spring quarters—and are elected sometime during the spring quarter for the following school year. A nominating committee appointed by the president, after consideration of each student's qualifications, nominates candidates for each office. Nominations may also be made by any member from the floor when nominations are called for by the presiding officer.

The constitution and by-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members at any regular or called meeting of the club. The constitution committee consists of Bill Burns, chairman; Bill Bowness, ex-officio; Robert Loudon; and John Ewing.

Tri Sigs Receive High Award for Examinations

This year the Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma tied with the Alpha Alpha chapter of Athens, West Virginia, for the examination cup which is awarded each year by the Sigma Sigma Sigma national office to the chapter with the highest average on their examinations. This is the first time in Tri Sigma history that two chapters have tied for the cup.

President Mary Garrett has received word that the cup will arrive soon. The cup will be placed in the chapter house at 529 West Fourth street.

Only veterans with service-connected disabilities may be authorized in advance, except in emergency, to receive treatment by a private physician.

Mr. Robert Gee, Director
Announces Play and Production Casts.

December 11 Is Date Set

Action of John Synge's Story Reveals
Irish Folk Lore in Gessala of Dingle Bay.

"Playboy of the Western World," an Irish folk play, has been chosen as the Dramatics Club's first major performance of the year. The date of presentation has been set for December 11.

The tale of the play is told from the fancies and wildest sayings of the Irish peasantry heard in any of the little hillside cabins in Gessala or Carraroe of Dingle Bay. Full of the Irish imagination that is fiery, magnificent, and tender, it was written to record a local life that is rapidly being forgotten because of the encroachment of the modern world.

The Abbey Players of Ireland, for whom John Synge wrote it, first brought the play to the United States. Since that time it has been performed many times on the New York stage.

The production cast includes Sam Carpenter, assistant director; Mary Clarke, makeup and costuming; Bill Elam and Betty Hudson, props; Jean Bush and Joe Roach, publicity; George MacLellan, Verlin Tompkins, and Dick Thomas, stage managers.

New Music Organization Is Effected at Meeting

At the Music Section meeting of the District Teachers Association the music educators of the Northwest District effected an organization to be known as the Northwest Missouri Music Educators Association.

The officers elected by the assembled music educators were Marvin Mothershead, Stanberry, president; and Andrew McCrae, Maryville, vice president and secretary. These officers plan the selection of a board of directors, members of which will be chosen from the various areas comprising the district. Tentative plans call for three meetings each year. The first will be in conjunction with the District Teachers Association meeting each fall. Other meetings will be spaced throughout the year and will be held in different localities. The purpose of the organization is to promote the interests of music education in the district. Significant features of the meetings will be clinics, guest speakers, and the performances of pupils from the high schools in the district.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to inculcate a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

THANKSGIVING, 1947

..... Comes again the time of year when we who believe bow down in humility to the almighty God and thank Him for the blessings he has given us. The custom of putting aside a particular day for the giving of thanks to God was established many years ago among our pilgrim forefathers. They gave thanks that they had the necessities of life; what then should we of the modern age be thankful for?

Throughout the past year, the world has been in an emotional turmoil. This maladjustment has been prevalent among nations, states, and even schools. However, somewhere along each day's path, some little bit of good has been done, and gradually things are coming around to where we can all live together in peace and security and contentment.

Things have improved here in our school. Students have become interested in what's going on and are beginning to participate in the activities of the College.

Each organization is realizing that it is a part of a truly active and spirited school. With this attitude, many are the things of interest that happen day by day.

Large crowds have cheered the Bearcats at home games. Many loyal backers have followed them out of town to see them win, or lose, but all ways do their best.

Homecoming time saw the greatest display of pep and enthusiasm that the College has had in many years. The day came ... a drizzly, gloomy day ... but failed to dampen the spirits of the Bearcats and their boosters.

Reserved seats in the auditorium were sold out a week before the first major entertainment of the year. Students, faculty, and townspeople viewed with enthusiasm the two plays given on consecutive nights, November 10 and 11.

Yes ... things are definitely getting around to normal here at the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College. First thing you know, we'll have practically forgotten there ever was a war and each little group that forgets it will help to form a bigger group and the larger that group becomes the more chance we'll have to live on in peace.

Our thanks, then, as a College would be for the general improvement in the attitudes of the students towards promoting the projects of our school; for the newly developed school spirit which has become quite in evidence; and for the trend of over-all improvement of the College as a whole.

IT WAS THE CAMPAIGN

Airplanes droned overhead, bands blasted the air waves with music, and, in contrast, mellow portraits of lovely College misses graced the halls, adorned ink blotters, or were carried in the hearts of the men and women of the campus. Posters, handmade signs, and informative slips of propaganda were seen everywhere. People were talking, loudly at times but not violently. People were interested in something.

What were they talking about? What caused the sudden arousing of spirit, so necessary and helpful to a college?

It was the campaign-for-queen conducted by friends of the queen contestants. For the first time since the political machinations, on a college basis, of pre-war groups, interest was directed toward a single goal. The goal was of an individual nature to each campaign leader, but to the College it was of an even more individual nature. The College was electing a Homecoming Queen, and the enthusiasm with which the campaign was conducted marked a stepping stone toward better school spirit. Along with the revival of homecoming, increased attendance at games and dances, and the general growth in spirit noticeable among both students and faculty, this item on the school calendar did much to make our College a better institution.

Lighted Campus Provides Gay Welcome for Alumni

Homecoming! That word was engraved deeply in the hearts of alumni and former students of the College. It was a chance to come back "Home" to an Alma Mater which had given them four of the most memorable years of their lives. It was a chance to come back to see their friends, to be able to walk down the Long Walk again, through the Ad building door, under the motto "and the truth shall make you free."

A hearty welcome greeted the alumni and students as they drove up the boulevard which was decorated in its traditional green and white. The campus welcomed them Friday night with its buildings aglow with warm, friendly lights.

The lights were like candles left in windows to guide those who had been away, back home again.

College Dairy Herd Is Classified

The College Farm has recently received a Herd Classification Certificate from the American Jersey Cattle Club of Columbus, Ohio. The eighteen animals which were scored averaged 83.89 per cent perfect, a score which is considered to be good. The herd sire, Vallani, a Wonderful King, was rated Excellent; six cows, Very Good; eight, Good Plus, and three, Good. Professor M. J. Regan, of Columbia, was the official classification judge who did the scoring.

Regardless of date of discharge, veterans may apply for compensation or pensions at any time.

Alma Mater

Let your voices loudly ringing,
Echo far and near;
Songs of praise thy children singing,
To thy men's dear.

Chorus

Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Tender, fair, and true;
Grateful sons with love unfailing,
All their vows renew.

Years may dim our recollections,
Time its change may bring
Still thy name in fond affection
Evermore we sing.

The meeting was called to order by President Thomas.

Roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Health Department

There are approximately two hundred fifty physical examinations yet to be completed. The upperclassmen are improving in their promptness in keeping appointments. Keep checking with the weekly list of appointments being posted on the bulletin board. There are also a few who have never made appointments. They will be receiving cards in the near future notifying them of the time they should report to the Health Department.

Cold shots are still being given to all who feel they will benefit from them. If you are subject to frequent colds during the winter these shots are highly recommended. They are being given in a series: two a week for the first four weeks and thereafter one a month through the worst part of the winter. This makes about twelve shots. The shots do not seem to be making arms very sore. The price is 50c a shot or $5.00 for the entire series. This service is available to faculty as well as students.

If anyone is interested in an influenza shot discuss the matter with Mrs. Wormsley. Arrangements can be made.

Absence because of illness will be excused through the Health Department if you will use the right procedure. When you are too ill to go to classes telephone the Health Department office (670L) to report such illness. When you are well enough to return to classes you may come to the Health Office and obtain an excuse. Please follow this procedure.

Each boy will be allowed to join one club. The clubs offered are swimming, boxing, wrestling, tumbling, volleyball, gym relays, softball, woodcraft, and other activities of interest.

YOUR STAKE IN WORLD AFFAIRS

Do you have any questions on the United Nations? To help the people of this country better understand the Charter and their responsibilities to the world organization, the American Association for the United Nations, 45 East 66th Street, New York 21, New York, is answering questions received reflecting the tremendous interest today and always for lasting peace.

QUESTION: Is the Security Council in session during the session of General Assembly?

ANSWER: Yes, it is, but it meets less frequently than usual due to duplication of personnel between the Council and the Assembly.

QUESTION: What is the status of the UN discussion of genocide? As a result of last year's General Assembly resolution condemning genocide (the physical, biological or cultural mass destruction of a people), a convention on the punishment and prevention of genocide was prepared by the Secretariat. This draft convention was placed on the agenda of the Assembly's Legal Committee, which has referred it to a sub-committee for study and decision as to future procedure.

QUESTION: What does the United Nations flag look like? ANSWER: The newly-adopted flag is light blue, 4x8, bearing the now-familiar emblem of the United Nations (a polar map of the world embraced by twin olive branches) in white in the center. The flag will fly over the buildings of the organization and will accompany special UN commissions into the field. It was first used by the Balkan Commission of Inquiry.

QUESTION: Is there a definite provision in the UN Charter that members of the Security Council be chosen on a geographical basis?

ANSWER: Yes, the Charter specifies that the 6 non-permanent members of the Security Council be chosen with due regard to "equitable geographical distribution." This is generally interpreted to mean that when the two-year term for a non-permanent member has expired, it shall be replaced by a state from the same area.

Western Stylist Gives Poetic Views Concerning Men, Boys, and Skirts

Mid such echoes,
Angry echoes!
Man's damnation
Of styles past.
Comes a new shout
(still the same shout).
"Women's styles—they change too fast."
Skirts were short,
And even shorter.
Men were shocked
At brazen sights.
Legs were shown
The knees and so forth.
Husbands put
Up awful fights.
Women got
So independent,
Men turned wolves,
The lot was sad!
Lack of cloth,
Skirts still shorter,
Boysish clothes
Became the fad—Gad!
All is changed,
Swift and surely.
Length in skirts
Is now regained.
Feminine, sweet,
Soft and drooping,
Woman's modesty

Is maintained.
In relief now
At these changes,
Breathes the male
His satisfaction?
Nay! Forever,
Man will give out
With uproarious
Mis-reaction.
Unsuspecting (man take note now),
That the women
Change with style.
If they wish
The women gentle,
Let them dress so
All the while.
Man has never
Learned his lesson,
That his life,
Will be more pleasant,
With the long,
The ladylike,
With the mode
Of fashion present.
Confusion say—"Man who fight against women and fashion like every other man in the world, but where has it ever gotten them?—

The Stroller

Oh! The joy and gladness of it all! Yep—once again in just a few days now we are all going to be free as birds for almost a week. People say Thanksgiving comes during that period of freedom—well, there's no doubt in the all-seeing mind of the Stroller as to why it comes then!

Hey, rosin on the bow and hyar we go . . . guess what? It seems as how those up and coming Varsity Villagers, under the able direction of Charlene Hartness, are planning to sponsor one of those "square dances" on opening night of the winter quarter. Of course, the Stroller has received no official confirmation of this flying rumor but, just in case, he's tagged himself a squaw and is practicin' up on the new fangled fiddlin' tunes. Sage counsel to all you young dandies would be that you do the same!

Amid flying fingernails, torn hair, and gnashing teeth, the weakly male student timidly peeked around each corner as he made his way from classroom to classroom. Aggregations of his female agitators argued in the halls, fought in the classrooms, and screamed challenges at each other. Upon seeing him making his timid way along, they immediately set after him like the hunters after a fox on a crisp fall morning. Ahhhhh, but a fox hunt was never like this! Yeah, you guessed it, for last week, Sadie Hawkins and her feminine followers roamed the halls in search of the heretofore forgotten male . . . and the startled male was often aroused from his peaceful indifference; but woe unto the man who got left out—even by Sadie, herself.

Residence Hall bows down to that freshman of affairs, Glen Meredith, who is seldom seen anywhere but there . . . The weeping willows droop their sadness for Richard C. Thomas, who ran a close second for "crew hours" at the dorm.

And those of you who parle francaise will understand the position of les deux hommes Lee Dreps and Bill Garrett who nightly rendezvous at an uptown cafe over a cup of coffee and a book en francaise.

"Paging Dick Palmer! Paging Dick Palmer! Get out of town before Manley Thomson catches up with you." The Stroller got it that Dick offered his garage for storage of some candy belonging to the Cooperative Independents (presided over by Manley). Anyone knowing Dick, who hasn't since heard his oft quoted expression, "Have a Chocoleto," just hasn't lived. It's rumored that Dick never moves without a Chocoleto.

Several interesting little items with gossiping possibilities have recently been turned into the office. My, my, what you students do do with your time.

It has been heard from very reliable sources that Mr. Sterling Surrey of the Commerce Department has some interesting tid-bits on the faculty. Could be the faculty members with shady pasts should check with Mr. Surrey before next edition. Could be!

"With one shoe off and one shoe on . . ." So went "Bertie" Robertson for the length of an evening's library session—and 'tis said that Sir Richard Thomas, gentle knight, carried her all the way to the dorm. Since, however, the Stroller didn't exactly see the event—he cannot say whether the ride was "piggy back" or not. The missing shoe was returned later by the smiling culprit, Dick Appelman.

Hush, hush club of the week—The Alpha Psi Omega honorary dramatics fraternity . . . The Stroller sat through a whole meeting before he learned that it was a secret organization. Here's one tip, though—It's some fun!

It's Charles Boyer—It's Pierre Aumont It's Pierre Soutteau! Oui, the gals at the Savannah High School gave our fellow student, Mr. Soutteau, a royal welcome when he talked there recently. Pierre, along with Nick Marinos and Arminda Zelaya, gave a talk at the PTA in Savannah a few nights ago. After the meeting, our French comrade was escorted to an evening snack by some of the young ladies from that town. When he was next found—he was surrounded by an admiring group of twelve or thirteen young ladies, who were students in French, and their teacher. Oo-la-la and Sadie Hawkins' week just around the corner!

Traditional rivalry long ago set up the goal of a Hickory Stick between the colleges at Maryville and Kirksville. The stick was lost and a new one sought to take its place. Now there is a new stick—they call it a Hickory Stick—but . . . the truth of the matter is . . . Teh . . . Teh, guess Doctor Mueller wasn't able to find the right kind of a tree.

Variety Show and Float Winners Announced

Night before Homecoming on October 31, a program was held in the College auditorium, consisting of different campus organizational skits.

First place went to the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity and the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Second place went to the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. Third place was won by the American Childhood Education organization.

On the following morning, November 1, the College had its first Homecoming parade since the war. First prize for the floats was given to the American Childhood Education. Second place went to Kappa Omicron Phi, and the third place was awarded to the Agriculture Club.

L'Illustration Will Appear Soon

L'Illustration, the French weekly magazine, will soon appear again at the library. This is the first time since 1929 that the library has subscribed to the Parisian publication. Unlike most American magazines, it is not only pictorial but is composed of articles from many fields of which a few are fine arts, science, sports, fashions, and news of the day—both foreign and domestic.

Hall Lobby Is Refurnished

If the rush of the past quarter has kept you from visiting Residence Hall you should make it a point to come over if it's just to look at the new green carpets and new furniture. When four more chairs and a sectional davenport arrive the lobby will be completely refurnished.

Homecoming Events, '47 Become Memories

Months of planning, plus feverish activity the latter part of the week, ended Saturday, November 1, the College's first "big" homecoming. Despite adverse weather conditions alumni came bumping up the Drive, some for the first time since graduation, to participate in activities and get-togethers all weekend.

John Harr, Social Science Department head, and a small group of faculty members, were the nucleus that first gave impetus to the drive for a large homecoming. From small beginnings the group grew, including members from student organizations of the campus. Organizations planned parties, luncheons, dinners, and methods of entertaining their returning alumni, and the other side fell into place.

Standing in the memories of the year were: The vigorous campaign for Homecoming Queen. . . the "Queen" Curry's advocates, guarding the campus with hand-to-hand flying aircraft. . . the kind behind the library, led for the pep rally, but just as it started an ember of spirit that will grow and the Variety Show! . . .

Understanding, of course, was the thing of the Queen, Margaret Keown, Sue Philip, Katie Espey, Maxine McDermott, all beautiful enough to be queens in their right. . . Greene sang in the Phi-Delta Sig skit. The things didn't happen! . . . Knobby, Eddie Reece, Grissinger, and unknown aid, throwing a gentle at the Sig Taus in their Phi skit. . . Ten cute little Indians, from A. C. E. . . the voice and of swoon-king Dean Steeby, the antics of Bob Wright in Sig Tau skit. The Taus engineering a return poke at the Phi. . . the sultry voice of Dusty man, and the actions of Marylin Scott, Betty Collins, and the Silver in the Dramatics presentation, "Frankie and Annie." . . Rex Meyer, program, playing the trombone with feet. . . Alpha Sigs in black, doing a minstrel routine. . . and Tri's, breakfasting their Saturday. . . Decorations in the ay, and on the campus. . . the ay, tired visages seen in class the of the week showing the effects preparation and climax of he ir. . . consensus of student and ant opinion, "Glad it's over, but have a bigger one next year."

Attend Regional Convention
Alpha Phi Omega held Regional convention on the Kansas University campus at Lawrence, Kansas, November 8 and 9. There were four gates from the Beta Upsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega here on campus that attended. The four representatives who attended were Johnson, Irvin Silver, Loren Egan, and Raymond Basford.

Fire Interferes With Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Grube and daughters had planned to go to a visit to the children's grandfather during the Thanksgiving season, but her house was partly destroyed by fire and is being rebuilt. As a result, they will remain in town.

It's Up to You!

During Homecoming festivities something new came to the College. It was a lion-sized Bearcat, a gift from the Art Department.

Long hours of work and painstaking care were given to the creation of the Bearcat, which is carefully constructed and is painted a pure white.

Confronting the committee appointed to select a place to keep the Bearcat is the problem of its preservation. Obviously its present construction is not intended to withstand the wear of time.

From its ultimate position of rest it will often be moved to partake in school functions, and as a symbol of the College it should take a leading part in such functions. The difficulty is in obtaining the assurance of students and faculty that they want this work of art as a permanent symbol.

It is a splendid Bearcat. Through the years an impression of it will be imprinted indelibly on the minds of all interested in the College. Whenever the word "Bearcat" is sounded there will be an understanding response in all. That is, really, what is desired. The statue represents the College.

Why not make it a permanent symbol?

Interesting Points Are Remembered by Alumni

How many know what the marker is across the road east of the Administration Building? It is in memory of a dog that used to be around school. Mike was remembered by many of the alumni last week end. Have you crossed the old rustic bridge down by the College lake? This place of romance was also remembered by returning alumni.

Until a few days ago the Campus had been missing something which at one time had been a spot frequently visited. The Love Seat, before it was broken, was beneath the white birch trees. There is a saying around school by the older members that the trees died of broken hearts when the Love Seat was broken. The Love Seat has been reconstructed and young birches are growing where the older ones had been.

What was once the stadium is now a housing unit for the veterans.

The tennis courts have been moved to a new location. Several years ago they were south of the walk that leads from the Administration Building to the Industrial Arts Building.

In 1939 a new library was built. Before that year the library had been located in Room 114 of the Administration Building.

The bookstore has been changed also. Several years ago the bookstore was located on the second floor of the main building in what is now the Northwest Missourian office.

Best Clowns!

Arthur Walsh (the man) and Homer Long (the woman) easily won the prize for best clowns.

Delta Sigma Epsilon Has National Leader as Guest

Miss Elizabeth Daniel, national president of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, was entertained by the Alpha Phi Chapter the week end of November 8. Miss Daniel met the girls of Alpha Phi chapter, and offered helpful advice for the program of the coming year. A practice initiation and model meeting were held for her inspection.

A luncheon was held at Residence Hall, Saturday, in her honor. Mrs. Canton, sponsor, and the actives and pledges of Alpha Phi chapter were present.

The administrators of the college, the mothers of Delta Sigma Epsilon actives and pledges, representatives and sponsors of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority, and the patronesses of Delta Sigma Epsilon were invited to a tea given in her honor at Residence Hall, Saturday afternoon, from 3:00 until 4:00 o'clock.

Several films were shown at the Horace Mann high school auditorium on business subjects. A film entitled "Behind the Annual Report" related part of the "backstage" story of the United States Steel Corporation. It covered such aspects of the corporation, activities as the division and distribution of corporate ownership, the source and use of the company's income, and the part that the steel industry expects to play in the future of the nation.

Other films shown were "Making Money" and "Know Your Money." These films are distributed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and concern counterfeit money.

Following the film, there was a short dance in the Bearcat Den where refreshments were served.

Tri Sigs Have Coffee Hour and Open House

Members of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority entertained with an informal coffee hour for 100 guests from 8:30 until 9:30 o'clock, Saturday morning, November 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest T. Gilliam, in honor of alumnae attending Homecoming at the College. The committee in charge of arrangements included Madge Miller, Thelma Overly, and Peggy Turner. Miss June Cozine, sponsor of the active chapter, and Miss Nell Hudson, chairman of the alumnae, were present.

The sorority held open house from 2 until 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, November 2, at the chapter house at 529 West Fourth Street. Guests were alumnae and active members of the sorority. Tea was served in charge of Betty Jean Martin and Phyllis Combs.

Pi Omega Pi Appoints Membership Committee

A special meeting of the Pi Omega Pi fraternity was held Tuesday, November 14, at four o'clock, in Room 207.

The main business of the day was to discuss the constitution of the organization and the changes made at the fraternity's national convention which was held in Chicago in 1946. Plans for the forthcoming movie and dance were also discussed.

A permanent membership committee was appointed which consists of Manley Thompson and Gaylord Coleman who will hold their offices as long as they remain in school. Their duties are to submit the names of eligible prospective pledges for every quarter.

The fraternity's executive officers are Nan George, president; Doris Gillispie, vice president; Jean Taylor, secretary and treasurer; and Ruth Wyatt, historian. A meeting of the officers was held Tuesday, November 11, to plan a program for the winter quarter.

Newman Club Emblem Is Presented

The regular meeting of the Newman Club was held at 7:30 Thursday evening, November 13, in the Bearcat Den. The program consisted of a talk concerning religious life and treatment of American soldiers on Bougainville and the Fiji Islands. Mark Christine whistled several numbers. Mary Margaret Martin gave a talk explaining the club's emblem following its presentation by Dorothea Carter.

Phi Sigma Epsilon Has New Honorary Members

One of the highlights during the Homecoming festivities was the Phi Sig breakfast in honor of the alumnae, given at the Methodist Church basement.

Knobby Walsh acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the guests, as follows: Harold Ashbough, Richard Basford, Don Barber, Franklin Bithos, T. W. Boyd, Fred Davidson, Harold Don Haynes, G. D. Headrick, Dick Lasley, Richard McDougall, W. E. Ogden, Keith Richards, Jay Roberts, Glenn Singleton, Turner Tyson, Bill Vest, B. C. Wilson, and James Zink.

Much credit of the success of the breakfast is to be given to Fred Davis, vice president, who is chairman of the social committee. It is hoped that gatherings of this sort can be more numerous than they have been in the past and that each of these meetings will increase in popularity.

Two new honorary members have been initiated into the fraternity. They are Mr. Clifford Kensing of the Commerce Department, and Mr. John Taylor of the Social Science Department.

Sadie Hawkins Week Highly Successful

Brad Moore's Dance Band furnished the music. Kick-a-poo-joy juice was served from a 50-gallon wooden barrel. A kangaroo court was held Friday morning for those students who did not come dressed as Dogpatch characters. Judge Dewey Drennan of the M club dealt out several strict fines, such as the book line, barefoot racing, dancing, and stamping and braided hair tipped with scotch tape.

Miss Mattie Dykes attended the Missouri Press Association convention in St. Louis, Friday and Saturday, November 7 and 8. While there she also attended the meeting of the Missouri Women's Press Club of which she is vice president and membership chairman.

Homecoming Luncheon Attended by Sixty-five

Bearcat helmets filled with fruit, autumn leaves, and chrysanthemums were the table decorations at the A. C. E. Homecoming luncheon held November 1 at the Linville Hotel. Sixty-five guests attended. Jeanne Bahl was program chairman.

The program theme was "Through the Years." Mrs. Bruce Garten, a charter member, gave a toast, "Lean Years" was given by Mrs. Pauline Andrews Goodson, Grant City; "Reminders," Miss Catherine Judson, St. Joseph; "Divergent Paths," Mrs. Morris Yaden, Maryville; "War Years," Mrs. Martha Posley Gamble, Maryville; "Now We Shine," Miss Margaret Turner, president of the Association, and an "Over-View" by Miss Chloe Millikan, sponsor.

Members of the local A. C. E. chapter further heightened their Homecoming success by winning first prize on their float, which carried the theme of school days.

Miss Frances Pfander was chairman of the float committee and was assisted by all members in preparing it for the parade.

Miss Patty Bosch headed the Variety Show committee and was well rewarded for her effort by having a third prize awarded to her group. The stunt carried out a modified version of the Ten Little Indians, with Miss Anne Curnutt as the Reader.

Faculty Dames Meet

Members of the Faculty Dames organization met at the home of Mrs. R. T. Wright on Thursday, November 13. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. David Crozier, Mrs. F. B. Houghton, Mrs. C. E. Wells, Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, and Mrs. Wright.

Horace Mann Float

School days then and now were depicted in the Horace Mann high school's float entry in the College homecoming parade.

At the front of the float, Larry Morehouse and Ronald Pfost listened to the teacher, Bertha Carter, in a scene of school days "then."

The variety of courses offered in present day schools were represented by the other students on the float. At the end of the float is Patricia Schulte, and standing at her right is Betty Manley demonstrating home economics courses with a bowl and stirring spoon. Directly behind her is Elmer Lane, representing vocational agriculture courses. Kneeling in front of Miss Manley is Earl Pasch, representing industrial arts. With his back to the camera is Don Weatherman and to his right is Joanne Wright. Seated at the typewriter is Jo Ellen Wilson, representing commercial courses.

The float was preceded by Horace Mann cheer leaders, Shirley McGinness, Joan Hansen, and Annabelle Schneider. Members of the high school's pep club walked behind the float.

Coach Ryland Milner and his Maryville Bearcats ruined a Homecoming weekend for the Kirkville Bulldogs, November 7, when they beat them, 22-6. The game was played in the afternoon in a high wind but on a dry field, only the third time this year the Bearcats have had the latter condition in their favor.

The Bearcats scored on a 42 yard end run off a T formation lateral by Norman James, on a one yard line plunge by Marvin Weed after Pete Younger had blocked and recovered a Kirkville fumble on the thirty yard line, and on a fifty yard pass play by Paul Butherus. Marion Freeman converted after the first two touchdowns, and Buck Logan tackled a Kirkville back behind his goal line for two more Maryville points.

After a scoreless first quarter during which period the Bearcats took advantage of a strong wind at their back to keep the Bulldogs deep in their own territory, Maryville struck suddenly for their first score. Gates kicked out of bounds on the one yard line on the last play of the first quarter, and after receiving the Bulldogs kick on their own forty the Bearcats began to roll. Line plays gained a first down, and then from the Kirkville 42, James took a lateral, swept wide around his own left end, picked up a covey of blockers, cut down the sidelines behind a beautiful block by Butherus, and raced across the double strip with the whole right side of the Bearcat line as escorts. Freeman split the uprights for the seventh point. Shortly thereafter, Younger crashed through, blocked a quick kick, and recovered the ball on the thirty. Five plays later Marvin Weed cracked over his own right tackle for the score. Freeman again converted. The halftime score was 14-0.

Maryville seemed headed for trouble in the third quarter when Gates fumbled the kickoff and returned it weakly to the 16 yard line. A fumble gave Kirkville the ball, but a stout line held for downs and the Bearcats moved out of danger. During this period, hard running and blocking overcame the handicap of a stiff wind in their faces for the 'Cats, and they managed to keep the play beyond the midfield stripe in Bulldog territory.

In the fourth period a pass from Gates to Butherus behind the line of scrimmage was followed by the latter's fifty yard open field sprint for a score. Later in the period Maryville made two points on a safety.

Kirkville's lone score came in the final minute of play after a long march from their own 26. Norman Vaughn passed to Art Hochstetler in the end zone for the touchdown.

Defensive standouts for the Bearcats were numerous, but Larry Zirbel, Harold Johnson, Floyd Klang, Jim Smith, Dewey Drennen, Howard Glavin, Don Hartness, and Bill Gamble played alert

Competitive Swim Meet Will Be November 20

Mr. Don Peterson, recreational sports director, has announced that the first competitive swimming of the season will be held November 20, at 7 p. m., at the College pool. Everyone is welcome, both spectators and competitors.

There will be men's events and women's events, highlighted by a mixed 160 yard medley relay race. Diving will be a contest by itself in the meet, according to Coach Peterson.

No man may enter more than three events, and no woman may enter more than two events. These are the rules of the meet. You can sign up now on the entry sheet on the bulletin board.

In the men's events there will be 40-80-100-yard competition in the back stroke, breast stroke, free style, and side stroke. There will also be a 200 yard free style race. In the men's fancy diving contest, two of the dives will be optional and three will be required.

The women's events will be 40-80-yard races in the side stroke, breast stroke, back stroke, and free style. In the women's diving contests, two dives are optional and three are required.

The feature of the meet, the mixed medley relay, will have four persons to each team. There will be two men and two women on the teams. A man will swim 40 yards in the back crawl, a woman 40 yards in a breast stroke, a woman 40 yards in a side stroke, and a man 40 yards free style.

This meet will be the highlight of intramural recreation during the fall quarter. With the winter quarter coming up, Coach Peterson is preparing for a big year in intramural sports at the College. The many fun nights and competition in intramural sports are being planned now.

Bearcat Co-Captains Are Mo-Kan All-Stars

Stanley Totoraitis, Paul Gates, and Harold Johnson, Bearcat co-captains and seniors, have been notified that they will be members of the Missouri all-star seniors' team in the annual Mo-Kan bowl game. The game is played at Blues Stadium in Kansas City, and the date this year is December 7, in the afternoon.

Totoraitis, hard hitting defensive and vicious offensive end; Gates, defensive standout and quarterback; and Johnson, clever and hustling guard, will leave for practice on December 3. All expenses will be met by the junior chamber of commerce of Kansas City, Missouri, sponsors of the game. This is the second Missouri-Kansas game, the inaugural affair being held last year. Maryville's representative last year was guard Tony Rizzo, now teaching in Kellerton, Iowa.

Seniors from the universities and colleges in both states are selected each year by a committee. The squad is 25 strong for each state. Coaches of the Missouri team are Volney Ashford of Missouri Valley and Tom O'Boyle of Springfield.

The backs ran well, particularly Weed and Butherus from their fullback slot, and James, Pat Zuchowski, Don Snyder, Alvin Wormsley, and Ronald Van Ryswyk did commendable work, although affected by a case of the fumbles.

Seniors With Coveted Hickory Stick

Pictured above with the coveted Hickory Stick, symbolic of football supremacy over Kirkville, are the seniors who played their last game against Warrensburg last Friday. They helped bring the stick home to Maryville and the College when they defeated the Bulldogs in the latter's homecoming, 22-6. Back: Ralph Kurtz, who was declared ineligible because of four years' previous competition; Bruce Peters, back; Jenny Wren, guard; Rex Adams, back; and Harold Johnson, guard, are in the first row. In the back row are Howard Glavin, end; Dewey Drennen, guard; Stanley Totoraitis, end; Vernon Weidmaier, tackle; and Paul Gates, back.

Random Shots . . .

The Bearcats' passing attack was greatly improved in the Kirkville game. The passers hit their receivers consistently although the frigid temperature caused several bobbles as the numb fingers would not permit the catch.

Jack Slack, plucky little back, from Omaha, missed the last two games because of torn ligaments in his shoulder suffered in the Cape game.

Larry Zirbel played outstanding ball at Kirkville. When Totoraitis was injured, Larry took over his end position. A few plays later, big Bill Sadich, the K. S. T. C. fullback, came charging around end only to be hit high and have the ball stolen right out of his hands by Zirbel, to give the Bearcats the ball deep in enemy territory.

Paul Gates turned in what was perhaps the best game of his career, at Kirkville. He kept the Bulldogs guessing all through the game, besides doing an excellent job of passing and kicking. On one play, he kicked out from a host of rushing linemen to have the ball go out of bounds on the one foot line!

Big Red Sweat from Jacksonville, Florida, was excited as a boy with a new toy when he woke up over at Kirkville and saw it was snowing. This was the first time he had ever seen it snow.

Cape and Maryville have played in the rain and mud every game for the last ten years.

Paul Butherus took a screen pass from Gates, and went 45 yards to score at Kirkville. Earlier in the game, Norman James, sophomore wing-back, dashed 42 yards around end behind excellent blocking to score the first touchdown of the game.

Pete Younger, hard charging Bearcat guard, bulled through big K. S. T. C. line and blocked a punt in the second half to set up a Bearcat score.

Buck Logan, 215 pound tackle from Kansas City, slipped through the line and nailed the Kirkville 2. B. behind their own goal line to give the Bearcats their only safety of the season.

Nine seniors will be lost from this year's team. Stanley Totoraitis, '41, '42, '46, '47. Paul Gates, '41, '42, '46, '47; Bruce Peters, '41, '46, '47; Swede Johnson, '42, '46, '47; Vernon Weidmaier, '42, '46, '47; Jenny Wren, '40, '47; Howard Glavin, '41, '46, '47; Rex Adams, '42, '46, '47; and Dewey Drennen, '46, '47.

Members of the student body are watching the paper closely for word of one, or more of these men above to land a berth on the Missouri all star team that will play in the Missouri-Kansas Bowl game, December 7.

The Kirkville Bulldogs had the traditional "Hickory Stick" wrested from their possession on November 7, and it is back here in the Bearcat lair to stay, we hope!

The Bearcats showed terrific offensive punch in the last few minutes of the Cape game. On the same off tackle play they ripped off 75 yards only to be stopped by the gun.

The "skunks," or the men who usually don't suit up for games, have shown wonderful spirit all year. These players have battled the Varsity time and time again in practice, and sometimes have come out a little the better of the two. This is the kind of spirit it takes to make a ball club click. Next year, they will be the backbone of the team and be proud that they stayed out this year. Congratulations to those men!

The Bearcats hit the biggest line at K. S. T. C. that yours truly has ever seen. Their two tackles confessed weighing more than 260 pounds!

This edition ends the "Football Random Shots". Hope it has been of interest and helped you to see inside of the games and this year's Bearcat team.

Maryville scored in a peculiar manner in the first quarter. Maryville had recovered a fumble on the Mule 30 line and had driven to the Warrensburg 3-yard line. Wormsley had been instrumental in the drive. The Bearcats fumbled and Ed Paulo, a guard recovered on the 3-yard line.

Kenny Webster, a halfback, stood back of his goal line to punt. The ball caromed off his foot and circled toward the west side of the field, going inside about eight yards.

When Marvin Weed, Maryville fullback, tried to pick up the ball on the run, the ball hit his shin and was accidentally kicked across the goal line and went out of bounds on the west side of the end zone, becoming an automatic safety.

Howard Glavin, a senior end from Atchison, Kas., scored the first touchdown for Maryville early in the third quarter. Maryville had kicked off and Warrensburg was forced to punt. The 'Cats took the ball on the Maryville 48 line. Weed drove 12 yards and then on a lateral from Weed to Alvin Wormsley, the Bearcats drove to the Warrensburg 27 line. Maryville lost five and punted to the Warrensburg 20-yard line.

Vernon Weidmaier, Maryville tackle, blocked the Warrensburg punt. The ball, bounced back to the Warrensburg 5-yard line where Glavin scooped it up and scooted over for a touchdown. Marion Freeman's place kick for the extra point was partially blocked.

The second Maryville touchdown came late in the fourth period. Warrensburg had put on a drive with Dunn and Wolf carrying the ball from the Warrensburg 28 to the Maryville 45-yard line. The Mules sent a pass over the line which Don Hoffman, freshman center, intercepted, and ran back to the Warrensburg 32 yard line. Norman James broke through to the Warrensburg 15. A line buck gained two yards.

Weed then broke through the line and evaded the Warrensburg secondary to score the final touchdown. Freeman's place kick was good.

Five Lettermen Report to Milner

Andrews, Scott, Glavin,
Butherus, and Younger
Lead Hoopmen.

With the close of the football season Coach Ryland Milner has summoned all boys interested in basketball to report for practice, and the season is about to start. Among the boys who have reported for early practice are such letter winners as Don Scott and Cotton Andrews. A great deal is expected from the sharp-shooting Scott who is capable of tearing the net off at any time.

Among the new comers this year James (Slim) Tanner leads the pack. Tanner hails from the sunny state of Florida and led his high school team to a berth in the state championship last year. He is a top candidate for the post position. Clyde Sweat, a buddy from Florida, is also planning to participate in the sport at the end of the grid season.

Also a new comer to the squad this year is Dale Street, from St. Joseph. Street is a fast boy and a terrific hazard to the opposition under the basket. Don Reynolds, former star at Hopkins, is out and is making his bid for the ball club and is worthy of any position might be put forth. Don Miller, other St. Joe boy, is on hand to bolster the squad and should do fine job before the season gets far along. Joe Sherman, Ben High graduate of St. Joseph, will out for his second year on the squad and is playing a fine game of basketball at the present time. Speed Bennet, along side of Sherman and is playing heads-up-ball worthy of recognition. There are many more players with talent expected to the squad as soon as football comes to a conclusion.

Other men out for early practice are Scheibler, Carmichael, Hin Merrick, Pipes, Pipes, Denver, McClure.

With no intention of putting Indian sign on Coach Milner, year's group of men has the makings of a fine team. It is expected they will start slowly, since let men, with the exception of Scott and Andrews, are just returning from the football field and are in good basketball shape as they have to work the kinks out of bruised muscles before they command the skills that they possess for topnotch basketball playing.

Paul Butherus, Howard Glavin and Pete Younger are the three football players who lettered last year and bolstered the Bearcat hoops when they reported this week.

Football in Review

During the past season the football forces of the school displayed unmistakable signs of being one of the finest of the many fine teams produced by Coach Ryland Milner. Though they didn't emerge as the power they were supposed to be, they tied the presently undefeated Springfield Bears, lost a game to an inferior opponent and to powerful Rolla, besides tying Cape in a poorly played homecoming tussle.

Seniors Stanley Totoraitis, Harold Johnson, Paul Gates, Rex Adams, Howard Glavin, Roger Wren, Dewey Drennen, Vernon Weidmaier, and Bruce Peters played their last game for the Bearcats against Warrensburg. Returning, however, will be a host of players who have gained invaluable experience while participating for the Green and White on the gridiron this fall.

As replacements for the veteran ends, Totoraitis and Glavin, Coach Milner has Larry Zirbel, Ken Jones, and Charles Godwin. Although Jones is a freshman, he has started many of the games this year and Zirbel came into his own against Kirkville when he inserted into the lineup for the injured Totoraitis. He is an excellent pass receiver.

With Floyd Klang, Jim Smith, and Bob Osborn slated to be back next fall, the loss of big Vernon Weidmaier at tackle will not be felt as heavily as at guard, where Johnson, Drennen, and Wren have left a huge gap in the ranks. Don Hartness, 205 pound, 2 year letterman, heads the parade of guards that will return. Aiding him will be Max Hoehpauer, Bud Baker, and Art Felt, an up and coming freshman.

Bill Gamble, Maury Geist, and Don Hoffman form a trio of top notch centers who will again wear the Bearcat colors next fall. No one is missed here, since no seniors are represented, and the above three should handle the center's chores capably.

Heading a fine backfield is big, bruising Marvin Weed, dependable Paul Butherus, and freshman Stanton at the fullback slots. Alvin Wormsley, Pat Zuchowski, and Don Snyder are ready for duty at the tailback posts. The loss of Rex Adams and Bruce Peters at wing-back will be offset by the return of swift Norman James, Ronald Van Ryswyk, Bob Boeh, and Jack Slack. Quarterbacking next year's eleven will be Charles Scruby and Bill Ward in place of the graduating Paul Gates. Signal calling will probably fall on the shoulders of Butherus or some other person familiar with the system used by Coach Milner.

With additional help from newcomers and a spirit for victory that was often lacking this year next season's Bearcats should make it rough for their opponents.
